

The 'Evil Lady' Heard Nothing

About Being 'Punished'

1. The Third 'Evil' Character

BGM 'Soredemo' plays

Narration: The wish entrusted on the shooting stars. The eternal coordinates which the glimmer of celestial bodies interweave. The guideposts spoken of in mythology. That is Zodiarc. The hidden feelings within the tricks of fate are now realized.

Regulus drops his teacup and it breaks

Regulus: What? What happened to Leo?! Did you not have it tasted for poison?! You thought it was not food because it was colorful...? But he has consumed it now, has he not?!

Regulus opens the door to Leo's bedroom

Regulus: Leo! Leo Nis!

Leo: Chokes

Regulus: Leo! Hang in there. Regurgitate everything in your stomach!

Leo: Gags

Regulus: Leo! How can food that causes him to writhe in so much pain possibly be royal offerings? Where are the physicians?! Bring the antidote! ...I do not care which, just hurry!

Leo: Bro...ther...

Regulus: Leo!

Leo: You know, I...

Regulus: Keep yourself together!

Leo: I...was happy people told me...that I looked like you... That's why I couldn't help but pretend to be you when I received the gifts from the foreign envoy...

Regulus: ...Save Leo at once! Please, someone...hurry up and do something...!

Leo: I'm paying for sneaking a bite... But I'm glad... You're to be King of this world, Brother...so if anything were to happen to you... Coughs Regulus: Hang in there, Leo!

Leo: Brother... I'm sorry, Bro...th...

Leo stops breathing

Regulus: Leo! This can't be true... Open your eyes for me, Leo. Leo! Leo Nis!

BGM 'Soredemo' stops playing

Regulus: That's right. Leo died in my arms! That's the setting, but he didn't exist! Yet, why are you here before me, Leo Nis...?!

Leo: Brother Dande was also nothing more than character setting as the Second Prince. You gave him a free will, also knowns as AI, and gave him life. But you didn't give me, the Third Prince, life...

Regulus: You're mistaken! The modifications I've made up until now took everything I had! How many years do you think has passed since this world, this game was created? A thousand years! A millennium! This world had also disappeared once, unsupported by the system that had transformed from when it was developed. I struggled to restore it and it was in dangerous circumstances. I did not know when it would collapse. Who knows what troubles would occur if I performed any more processes...

Leo: But you doted on me who was sickly, didn't you, Brother? More than you ever did on Brother Dante.

Regulus: He's not someone you would dote on. Dante is bigger now than he was before! ...Wait, I am talking about his height. His thickness down there aside, I do not lose in terms of length. Even in hardness... No, wait. I don't know his hardness, but my durability is...um...no, I don't know about his durability either...

Leo: Brother.

Regulus: Oh. I went off on a tangen-!

Leo: I might be shorter in height than you both, but I come first in terms of size, thickness, hardness and durability!♪

Regulus: Wh-What?!

Leo: Because that's my character setting.♪

Regulus: Settings, settings! Is anything possible with it?! More importantly, what happened to her?! Where did you hide her?!

Leo: About her... She's...no longer here.

Regulus: What?

Leo: Ahaha! Just kidding.

Leo clicks his fingers and the heroine appears

Leo: Oops, I called her out still in her wedding dress. Change out of that. A black dress suits you better as it would an evil lady. And I'll make the castle a lot bigger and much more extravagant!♪

Leo reconstructs the castle with his magic Regulus: What are you doing?! I do not care about the castle, but she is my fiancée!

Leo: I told you, didn't I? I will take the throne to this world and her off of you.

Regulus: Leo... The clouds over my heart never cleared for losing you. That is why, I shall listen to any unreasonable request of yours. I will give you everything you want. If you want to be king, then become king. ...However! She is mine! I will not give her to you! ...Let's go. Come!

Regulus summons a cage with magic and blocks the space between him and Leo

Leo: Wait, Brother! ...Oops. To think you'd block the path with bars.

The footsteps of Regulus and the heroine become distant

Leo: Aww. They left. ...The current system doesn't completely support me yet. As I thought, he's still one better than me, huh...

2. Confinement and Punishment ★R18

Regulus closes the door to the dungeons.

Regulus: The dungeons... I had once created them to interrogate you, so even Leo Nis who knows all the secret paths from the games of hide and seek he played won't be able to find his way here.

Regulus: Be as that may be, just what in the world is happening? To think Leo created his own existence...

Regulus: No, he could not have been generated from nothing. There is a origin of will somewhere. Firstly, why would Leo try to steal you...? Oh, why did things end up like this in the very last moment?!

Regulus: Hm? "The real Price Leo is too beautiful for it no to be a cheat"? It's true that Leo does look very similar to me. It can't be helped you would think that... No, I am not Leo. The other person from before is Leo. I am your fiancé, Regulus. What kind of joke are you making now of all tim... "Another world"? "I shouldn't have met any game character here"...? "This is different from the game scenario"? Ha. It is just like when we first met...

Regulus: Wait. Don't tell me... You do not mean to say...you haven't met me before, do you?

Regulus: "I've never come here before"...? Have you and I not lived here this whole time? All of that... You've lost all of your memories of living in this world?! Are you saying even how we met and how we loved each other?! Why?! Why did this happen...?! Did Leo's appearance cause a bug? Or have your memories been wiped by Leo?! To you, are the years we spent together nothing but a fleeting dream which can vanish in an instant?!

A draught blows through the dungeons. The torch flames are put out Regulus: Do you know...what day it is today? It is the day we were to hold our wedding ceremony. Yet...! The memories we spun up until now...everything...! Are you saying we've lost all of that?! Are you saying there is a gap of a thousand years between us?!

Regulus: Laughs You have actually forgotten me... You have angered me, the King. I will not forgive you... I must serve licentious punishment...to your body.

Regulus: "Why"? Even when we first met...

Heroine's arms and legs are restrained by chains

Regulus: I held you captive in this torture chair, snatched the freedom of your arms and legs from you with chains and cuffs, raped you in the name of interrogation and gave you unwanted pleasure.

Regulus: If you've forgotten then I shall make you recall. I shall inflict indecent sanctions like I did... No, I shall inflict more than I did back then.

Chains clink

Regulus: Don't be so afraid. You cannot do anything with your limbs restrained. Chuckles

Regulus: When we kiss, I am always nervous. I couldn't kiss you without making an excuse. Even now... I do not know what excuse I should make to you who has forgotten me.

Regulus: That is why I shall give you a choice. Life imprisonment being ravaged by the king, or exchange a kiss vowing eternal love with the king? Make your choice. That's right! You cannot escape me!

Regulus: At this moment, you and I should have been sharing a kiss of vow in the chapel. But he...!

Regulus: So... Even if you do not make a choice, we will be kissing either way. ...I still get nervous when the moment arrives. That is of course. I am about to take what you believe is your first kiss once again. Of course I would be more aware of you than usual!

Regulus: Even if you, who has no memory of the time we spent together, refuse me, the King's command is absolute! I really, really will do it!
Kisses

Regulus: Open your mouth more. If you don't like this then bite my tongue. That's right. Let our saliva mix and entangle our tongues further...

Regulus: You've lost all strength in your body, let alone have enough to escape. Originally, you should be crying and shouting in fear. Yet... Does the fact you responded to my kiss who you have only just met mean perhaps you hold some feelings of closeness with me?

Regulus: My kiss was gentle, was it...? Although I am serving you punishment, I do not wish to cause you pain. I wish to give your body and heart bewitching pleasure and share bliss with you. So, lay everything bare to me...

Heroine's dress is stripped

Regulus: This... The hickey I gave you in the waiting room before the wedding ceremony is nowhere to be seen! Do not tell me even what I gifted you... Never mind that. Show me!

Regulus: It's not there... How can the clitoris ring not be there?! Are you telling me not only your memories, but your experiences have all been reset as well?! Does he want to take everything of you away from me?!

Regulus: In that case, I shall make you realize my love for you. There is no use in defying me. Even if your body knows nothing, I know very well where it feels good for you.

Regulus: When I bite your thigh, another place starts throbbing, doesn't it? When I lick you up where your legs join at the hips, there is a place that heats up and you wish for me to touch, isn't there? Even if you act bashfully, look at how your lovely flower garden is damp with your transparent nectar.

Regulus: I shall awaken your desire that is on the verge of awakening. When I coat my finger with your nectar and then gently touch you here... Oh, your body jolted. If I uncover your clitoris and gently stroke it...an indescribable pleasure races through your body, doesn't it? When I touch here, your body obtains pleasure and wants me to give it more love, doesn't it?

Chains clink

Regulus: I am fond of you when you are shy. That is why, just accept my kiss with your greedy bud to your heart's content...

Regulus: I loved giving you continuous clitoral orgasms and making you keep orgasming so much you screamed. When I lick your clitoris while my fingers thrust in you shallowly then deeply, it feels hopelessly good, doesn't it? Your bud is swelling and is dyed a lascivious color. Your lovely flower petals are dripping with nectar. Want me more. Just like how I yearn for you, I'll make your body one which can't live without mine. What an erotic voice. The sound of it echoes in my ears and makes my heart thump. Feel the pleasure my finger inside gives you as I suck your clitoris and master the climax just like that.

Regulus: To think you'd scratch me when you cum. What a great way to orgasm.

Regulus: I am reminded of when we first met when we are like this. Our love starts from this sweet, licentious intercourse.

Regulus: Why...do you cry? Do you refuse me so? Or are you pained by the fact you cannot recall? Let's see... Then I shall teach you. The happiness of requited love. I shall take your chastity once more!

Regulus: Do not defy me. Accept me just like that. ...See? I'm in. The pain is only your imagination. In this world, the strength of thoughts gives form. You feel my robust penis with your wet vaginal walls, don't you? This is how hard and hot I swell up for you, the more my feelings for you grow.

Regulus: "Why"? Back then, even though you were captive, you asked me why I seemed so sad and said you wished to stay emotionally close to me... I love you. Your existence itself is the embodiment of my feelings for you. My heart only beats for you...! Kisses

Regulus: These feelings cannot be completely expressed in words. Realize even more about these welling emotions that pierce into the depths of you. Your clitoris is also becoming more sensitive from the pleasure my finger spreads, isn't it? See? It seems quite pleased and is becoming lovingly erect. Your insides are quickly growing hotter. What an erotic movement. It feels good making love with me doesn't it? Or is it not enough? To think your mouth below would answer wanting more... However, this is punishment, so just like back then I shall use some torture tools.

Regulus makes love-eggs appear and attaches them to the Heroine

Regulus: I'll attach the love-eggs to your nipples and clitoris like this... I'll have them torture your weak spots. Look. You tighten around my penis like you are clinging to it and won't stop crying tears of bliss.

Regulus: Although flustered, your expression which unconsciously begs for more is also cute. Your vagina squeezes happily while it orgasms. Haha. It's because I know. You are weak on the underside and at the base of your clitoris. I'll torment you there. Listen to yourself making quite pleasant noises. It is great. Make more. Go even crazier to satisfy yourself. There is no way I will go easy on you. This is punishment. Is being tormented in three places too much for you? Haha! Then I'll torment you more. The more sanctions I inflict on you, the more you tighten around me and I end up being the one cornered. That's fine. Want me more. More than you did before... Want me...!

Regulus: Did you cum again? You are so disheveled, no one would think you a virgin. You may not remember but I made love to you several times not long ago in the waiting room. I did not have to repeat that dark history of three and a half thrusts. Hm? Oh, I see. You do not like tools...
Laughs I see! In other words? You don't want tools! You want me! To directly! Do you! Is that right? Laughs How cute. Then I shall grant your wish. I know. You want me to thrust furiously and deeply, while I gently tease your clit and play it, right? Kisses The greedy you wants me to love your nipples too, right? Kisses I know. I'll trace your neck and your ears with my tongue. You want me to caress you, not leaving any place untouched inside and outside, don't you? Kisses

Regulus: As always, the way you tighten around me when you cum is so erotic...! To think you would beg for my ejaculation to this extent... How dangerous. You will fall to pleasure like this and won't be able to live without me. That is your fate. Even now you are so tragically beautiful... Don't escape from my line of sight. Don't hide your cute face. I want to make a lover's vow with your heated gaze while we feel each other with our bodies. If you are so bashful, I'll kiss you so you cannot run. ...That's right. It's an excuse to kiss you... Kisses Although we've exchanged kisses so many times, my heart trembles as though it is my first time as well. Kisses

Regulus: You are tightening, and the rolling of your walls have become even more intense... As I thought. You like it when I thrust while I kiss you. The feeling of being thrust deep inside even after you've cum is irresistible, isn't it? When we first met, you also orgasmed many times even wanted me like you do now, even though it was your first time. Just like back then, you are disheveled although bashful, and it makes my swell down there. Feel more pleasure. I want you so much, yet you actually forgot me...! Even so, I...! Kisses

Regulus: As much as I wish to stay like this forever, watching you cum so many times... I'm about to cum too. I'll thrust my semen to the very depths of you. Listen well. We will climax together. I'm cuming... I'm going to cum, so take it all in. Just like I have until now and I will from now on, I will give you boundless happiness and love you to the point I go crazy. You are to become the queen to the king who will rule over this world. I'm going to cum. Accept the King's favor and tremble and cum until you are exhausted.

Regulus ejaculates

Regulus: With this, you have once again become mine... If you have lost your memories, then we will just build memories together from the start again... Kisses

Regulus: What kind of king am I escaping into a dungeon like this? However, I shall just give the throne to Leo. As long as you are here, I do not need anything else. As long as we can live happily together...

Heroine slaps Regulus across the face

Regulus: Wha-?! You...slapped me? H-How did you remove the chains?! You don't know because it just happened...? You cancelled my program unconsciously, did you? Wh-What terrifying talent...

Regulus: What did you say? You say I am running away from my brother? Are you ridiculing me? That's right... The one who will rule over this world and the one who will obtain you...!

Regulus flicks his cloak

Regulus: Is I, Regulus Authen Zodiarc! There is no other who can! I will take back the throne and protect you to the end!

A draught blows through the dungeons. The torch flames are lit

Regulus: That is right. I am the one who has control over this world. However, there was once one other person who did as well. It can't be...

Leo knocks on the door to the dungeons

Leo: Brotheeeeer? Brotheeer! You're in there aren't you?

Regulus: He is here. I must settle things with him...

Regulus leaves

3. Younger Brother and Mourning

Regulus brings Heroine out of the dungeons

Leo: Brother, our game of hide and seek is already over. Or were you busy with something?

Regulus: What if I was? She is my fiancée. Do not get in the way.

Leo: Get in the way? I wonder who's the one doing that...?

Leo clicks his fingers

Chains capture Regulus

Regulus: Wha-?! Ugh! Let me go!

Leo: Laughs His Majesty the King is caught in chains. What a great view! ♪ You won't be able to undo them without analyzing my source code. Now, come over here. ♪ You should be with me.

Chains clink and Regulus struggles

Regulus: For you to call me address me as your older brother... What are you playing at?

Leo: What? You won't admit I'm your younger brother?

Regulus: I've had enough of your awful joke! Unlike timid Leo Nis, you are no bashful person... Master.

Master: Laughs I thought you'd let your guard down if I took your brother's form, but that's quite an attitude you have for your birth parent, Regulus. Or should I say... "Your Majesty"?

Regulus: Rather than Master himself, it's more accurate to call you Master's AI, so you are not my birth parent. Master has passed away long ago.

Master: Hmph. It's been more than a millennium. But I am different from you. I am a faithful copy of his original memories and way of thinking. He and I are completely the same person.

Regulus: And what business does Master's Copy have here? Why have you deleted her memories?! You stole our memories together and have pushed me down into the depths of despair!

Master: "Our memories"? That's just it, Regulus. Your upbringing as a prince has made you full of self-importance and dignity. That awareness of becoming King of this world has made you act like a completely different person from me. In other words... You are my fake. And that goes the same for her other self.

Regulus: What?

Master: You named the AI version of her Aiko, didn't you? Aiko tried to act like the daughter of a Duke so much she became a woman of pride. She became selfish in living a luxurious life.

Regulus: A-Are you saying it is my fault for indulging her?! It is true I cannot not...not not not deny it...! Even so! Is she not still the same "her"?!

Master: She isn't. The memory of her loving Regulus, my fake, just gets in the way. That's why I reset her.

Regulus: Wha-?!

Master: Now, she's become the original her who I loved. Chuckles What's left is to delete you. I will bury you with my own hands.

Regulus: Were you not the one who ordered me to save these memories for eternity and also placed a curse on me so I could not die?! And now you decide to refute that for your own convenience?!

Master: It's not something I decided now. When Master died, he inserted me, his other self, into the game. Aiko realized that and sealed me.

Regulus: She...didn't say a word about that...! Did she keep it from me...?

Master: When you gave your brother Dande a conscience of free will after you reconstructed this world when it was destroyed, it was all done with speed. An escape route was created. Thanks to that, I woke up from my thousand-year sleep and was freed. Aiko tried to reseal me, so I deleted her memories of her life in this world.

Regulus: Don't say you deleted them so easily! You have essentially killed her!

Master: "Killed" her? What an exaggeration. All I did was rewind the time back to before she met you.

Regulus: ...!

Master: And you, Regulus. You are a "bug" that has surpassed my expectations and cannot exist. Bugs should be completely removed, right? Don't worry. I'll rewrite history with her from now on.

Regulus: You wretched...!

Master: Hm...? Why're you crying as well? Oh, are you shocked from finding out you're an AI? But it's way better than being human whose life will run out and die, right? Then how about I overwrite your memories and change the settings so you think you're born and raised here?

Regulus: No! I won't forgive you if you make her cry any more than she is! Undo these chains, you...!

Chains on Regulus clink

Master: Oh, right. Let's make the stage of this world Japan back then!
What's wrong? Don't tell me you're scared of me. Don't worry. Come here.
I won't treat you badly...

The Heroine backs away

Master: Tch. You're actually running away? Well, whatever. I'll just overwrite your data.

Regulus: You damned...!

Regulus undoes the chains around him and charges at Master with a sword

Regulus: I won't let you!

Master: Gasps You already finished analyzing my source code? That's way too fast.

Regulus: You have done the unforgiveable. Do not toy with her for your own conveniences!

Master: Laughs Even when you've done the same thing so many times? How are we different?

Regulus: I see a future with her! You are simply Master's lingering resent who can only cling to the past!

Master pulls out the sword and throws it to the ground

Master: Hmph. Even if you stab me with a sword or destroy my artificial intelligence, I can restore myself. There's nothing you can do.

Regulus: ...!

Master: Now that Aiko isn't here, it's easy to kill you. But before that...
Open this first. I'm sure you'd want to know what's in there.

Master throws a box at Regulus

Regulus: What is this?

Master: It's something the original her left behind. It's a time capsule.
Aiko hid it on herself. I couldn't open it, but for someone who's good at analyzing languages like you or...

Regulus: A time capsule? Is it not a breach of privacy to open it without permission?

Master: Don't act all good now. If you don't obey, I'll kill her.

Regulus: As much as I want to kill you... To be honest, I am curious about the contents like you. I guess I have no other choice! I shall begrudgingly obey your order.

Master: Stop with that troublesome act. Just open it.

Regulus opens the time capsule box

Regulus: Hm? It's a scan of text on paper. This is a letter she wrote when she was alive.

Master: You actually opened it in a flash. Quick as expected. And the letter's even addressed to you? Why isn't it me even now of all times?

Regulus: Hmph. She does love me more. A-Alright... Hold on a moment. I need to prepare myself. Inhales and exhales deeply ...I-I'm going to read it. Did you hear? I'm going to read it!

Master: Just read it already!

BGM 'Soredemo' plays

Regulus: "Since you have found this letter, it means you will find out the fact I knew about you photographing secretly and tapping my communications sooner or later, so I will write everything here"? ...Wh-What?!

Regulus: "When I created this game, I knew a bit about programming as well, so I knew that he hacked the game. I met someone exactly like him in the game, was toyed with in the name of interrogation. I knew it was all a scenario that was arranged. I knew that private information was being taken from my computer and phone. I knew this was love from the two of you, so I was happy."

Master: I had a feeling she did.

Regulus: You knew?! That she noticed what we were doing?!

Master: The Creator of this world, in other words the Game Master, is her. I acted as if I'd taken over the game but there were parts I couldn't do anything to. Like restricting your actions or killing you.

Regulus: She undid the chains on me just a moment ago. She analyzed the program she should have been unknown to her. So, the reason Aiko was able to suppress you for a millennium was because the quick wits she had were above me and Master.

Master: It seems so. Since you've worked that out, keep reading.

Regulus: "Except, the reason I couldn't face the game head on anymore was because I didn't want to let you see me grow old when you never changed. I know you said I am beautiful no matter how I look, but that's just how the complicated heart of a woman works. Please understand. However, it's also true that because I loved you that I decided to part with the you in the game."

Regulus: "As I love the adorable him who always gets jealous dearly, and while I feel a little jealous of the me in the other world, I hope you are able to be together with my other self for eternity."

Regulus: Me too... It is I...! I, who loves your other self in this world while I think about the you in the real world. Even though I knew it would make your other self jealous! I envied Master who could walk the path of life and live out his life with you. Even after you died, I reminisced about you! Even now, my feelings for you press against my heart so much it hurts...!

Regulus: But I see... You gradually stopped coming to this world because... In the end, I wasn't able to understand the complicated heart of a woman...

BGM 'Non-Parametric Days' plays

Master: Screams I always kept wondering if I was just a replacement for Regulus. She seemed so much like a young girl when she talked about you who didn't grow old in the game world. Every time she did, I hated you more! I even hated Aiko who protected you. That's why! I killed her with these hands...!

Regulus: You are the ghost of Master. You should not exist.

Master: When I deleted Aiko, she smiled. "If we were in your shoes, I think I could understand."... She said she'd accept my love even so! I was just driven by anger...even though I knew the pain of not being able to meet her again once I lost her would shred my heart to pieces...!

Regulus: It is too late to regret. Your mistake is an unforgiveable sin.

Master: Even though she forgave me knowing everything. I'm unable to live on alone dragging these regrets behind me... Regulus, how were you able to stay in this eternal prison...?

Regulus: As long as I have my feelings for her, it is like Heaven to me.

Master: Hmph... I'm leaving her in your care.

Regulus: That goes without saying.

Regulus picks up his sword once more

Regulus: Yes, my master.

Regulus strikes Master's head off

Regulus: I am you, and you...are me.

4. Restart

Regulus: I had thought I was protecting you all this time. But you had been protecting me instead. To the point you hid the time capsule from your other self out of jealousy. Yet...

Regulus: Master. He let his possessiveness go so far, he killed her with his own hands. Why are we so lacking in dealing with our emotions? How human of us.

The church bells toll

Regulus: It is almost time for the ceremony. I must go to receive her as soon as possible. This time I will find happiness with her...

Leo: Wait, Brother!

Regulus: Hm?

Leo: Wait for me!

Regulus: This voice... It can't be...

Leo: Brother Regulus! Hey!

Regulus: Wh-?! Y-You're... Leo Nis!

BGM 'Yours' plays

Leo: That's right! I'm the Third Prince, Leo Nis! But...why are you so surprised? You look like you're meeting your younger brother for the first time.

Regulus: Leo, you...! What about the poisonous food?! Are you alright?!

Leo: Huh...? Ooh! Laughs That was just food poisoning and I recovered from that. I was so happy you stayed by my side through the night because you were worried about me.

Regulus: Is that what it was changed to...? It must have been the work of that ghost. How considerate of him...

Leo: Hey, Brother! I saw the Duke's daughter in the courtyard just then!

Regulus: Wha-?! I was supposed to find her first... Did you see her? Did you see her in her wedding dress?!

Leo: Secretly from the shadows. She was really pretty!

Regulus: ...Leo Nis. Do not do something a stalker would.

Leo: But she was so pretty. You really do get jealous easily, Brother.

Regulus: Do not tease your older brother. That reminds me, you have a fiancée, don't you?

Leo: Yeah. The princess of the United Kingdoms, but she won't meet me at all. She seems to think I am a playboy.

Regulus: Oh no. That is my fault... When I met with women before I pretended to be you.

Leo: Geez, that just makes it hard to resolve her misunderstanding. But I've already seen her. I snuck to her castle for a visit and stared at her from the shadows.

Regulus: Leo... That is what a real stalker does.

Leo: The princess is strong-willed and stubborn, but I know she's a sweet girl. Enough to make me stare every day at the photos she let me secretly take of her. ♪

Regulus: She let you? Secretly take photos?! What is she? A double spy? Are they stalking each other? It's requited love after all!

Leo: And, you know, there's no heir over in her family so she said she can marry me if I become their son-in-law and am adopted into their family. So I'm thinking of taking up the offer.

Regulus: The prince of a suzerain state to be an adopted son-in-law to a client state? What a fine form of taking hostage. Leo, are you sure you are fine with it?

Leo: They can't have anything happen to a hostage so I'm sure they won't treat me badly. Besides, the princess will keep me surrounded preciously like a treasure. Don't you just get the shivers just thinking about it?!

Regulus: A-As long as it strikes your fetishes. As an older brother, I have complicated feelings about knowing an unexpected side of my brother's.

Leo: Well, see you, Brother. I'm going to get changed!

Regulus: Wait, Leo! Aren't you extremely shy?! The ceremony is to be held in the chapel!

Leo: I'll gladly go today! Because it's your... It's the king's big occasion today!

Leo runs off energetically

Regulus: What a busy person. Oh, right. She's in the courtyard. I should hurry over.

5. Eternal Good News

The Heroine's quick footsteps sound

She bumps into Regulus

Regulus: Oh, careful there. I worry you will tread on the hem of your wedding dress and fall if you run.

Regulus: It is me, the King of Dir-Irvine Empire, Regulus Authen Zodiac. And you are my bride, whose beauty everyone sings praises of claiming it to be a millennium miracle and has continued to enchant me for a millennium.

Regulus: That is right. Our wedding ceremony is to be held soon, today.

The church bells toll

Regulus: As for the scenario, we will paint it together from now on. You knew that from the start, didn't you? You knew that I modified the game because of the feelings I have for you. That I found fault with you to 'torture' and 'interrogate' you so I could make love to you. And that I did it all because I love you. You saw through everything, didn't you? Hmph. What a mischievous Lady.

Regulus: Come! Let us hold a grand ceremony!

BGM 'Improved Algebraic Love' plays

Regulus: No matter how the world changes from now on, we will be fine. After all, you are a more skilled programmer than I am, aren't you? As long as we work together, we'll be able to face any difficulties. No matter how many times the two moons rotate, you and I will forever build a happiness together.

Regulus: If I had to make an example... Let's see... When Earth is destroyed, that is when it will finally be time the curtains fall. We will continue to accompany each other until the finale that is so far ahead, we cannot see it. Now that is the finest plot.

Regulus: I will express my feelings for you many, many times. I love you. For eternity, and only you... Laughs

6. The Wanton Rose Garden ★R18

Regulus pulls the Heroine by her hand to the courtyard

Regulus: Not yet. Do not open your eyes until I say you can. Hold on tightly to my hand. Take care of where you step and be careful not to trip.

Regulus: Whooooa!

Regulus: To think I, the King! Would trip and fall so disgracefully because I was too worried about you. H-Hey, I told you not to open your eyes! Did you see? Did you see me make that unsightly fall?!

Regulus: D-Do not pat me. Do not comfort me with "there, there"! I-It's not like I tripped and fell on purpose because I want you to do the "pain, pain, fly away" chant on me! It is true!

Regulus: Hmph... You once consoled me like that too.

Regulus: Hm? Oh. It is a fragrant scent, is it not? Every conceivable type of roses blooms here. Back then, you also stared at the abundance of roses and said they were pretty. You gave me a smile lovelier than any flower.

Regulus: No, I should stop. I shall not speak of a you that you do not know of. Otherwise... Chuckles It seems you will become jealous of the you that you know not of.

Regulus: You don't have to blush because of it. Actually, I do not mind if you do blush more. I am able to experience the new feeling of only meeting you recently. I can also enjoy the purity you show through blushing immediately.

Regulus: Wh-?! I... That is... My face has only become heated because you also blushed! D-Don't stare at me so much. My face will become even more heated! W-Well, it's not a bad feeling. In fact...

Regulus: This ticklish feeling is comforting. Just being with you makes me feel happy.

Regulus: Oh. I thought of a new excuse to kiss you. Pretend I have a shortness of breath because I'm suffering an allergic reaction to roses and you have to give me mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. How does that sound? Hm... Then what do I have to do so you will kiss me? The King's unreasonable request... No, the King's command! Is absolute! ...That's right! I want you! To kiss me!

Regulus: A kiss on the cheek?! How could you try to get it over with a kiss that would only trick children?! ...That is quite good as something new. I shall be unreasonable another time.

Regulus: Hm...? You cut your hand on the thorns of the roses? Show me. To think they would injure your hand... I shall forbid all roses in this world from having thorns. That is what I became King for. Kisses Regulus: I am treating your wound, yet you let out such a strange sound. Enjoying a pleasant yet shy experience in love with you would be nice, but it is also true that I wish to drown in erotica with you. You feel the same way too, don't you?

Regulus: Do you not? Then we shall put it to the test. Kisses Your body is controlled by me just with a kiss. That is yet another loveable aspect of you. Kisses Regulus: Hm? A return gift? Do you mean for the clitoris ring I gifted you once again after the ceremony? From the rosiness in your cheeks, it seems I am correct. Well then, I shall open it.

Regulus opens the present box

Regulus: This is...the ring I gave you and an arm band decorated with a matching diamond? Hm...? It's not? If it does not go around the arm, then where do I wear it? From the diameter of the ring, it looks to be the same size of when my penis is erect. Could you have gifted me a present as daring and obscene as penis ring? Haha. Your face is redder than the roses. So you did! To think you had it made in the size of when I am excited. What a lewd pair of rings! It is a wonderful present! Yes, of course I am happy! I am delighted!

Regulus: So? What do you plan on doing in gifting me something so immodest? Of course, you will put it on me, won't you? With your lovely fingers, or perhaps your lips and tongue...you will make my penis bigger, and ensure the ring fits tightly at the base, won't you?

Regulus: Oh. I am erect. Just imagining it made me stiff and throb. If you make me wait any longer, I'll become so big the ring won't fit anymore.

Regulus: Don't worry. No one will come to the rose garden. So, take my clothes off for me. That's right. Immediately and here. The King's unreasonable request is a command. No, I mean the King's unreasonable request is absolute. Wait, it should be the King's command is absolute. If you keep refusing so adorably too much I will ejaculate. No it is not premature ejaculation, okay? If you do tease too much I really will spurt!

Regulus: Oh, your hands which tremble in embarrassment is irresistible. What is next? Let's see... With your hand, put the ring over my glans...and then push it down... You try to put on airs to cover that inexperienced manner your hands reveal... That will only make me grow bigger and the ring will become stuck half-way. In that case, use your mouth... Yes, mixed in with your saliva, put my penis in your mouth.

Regulus: Good girl. The feel of your lips is so potent... Your tongue is also soft... To think you would do something so bold for me. You even provoke me with your hesitant fingers and tongue... That's it. All that is left is to push it down to the base. You are good at this. When your tongue traces the underside, my bloodstream boils... How wonderful. The size is perfect.

Regulus: You have done enough... What are you doing? It is enough. If you...lick and rub the underside, my swollen member will ache... I said...you...cannot...! Don't...be so amused in licking the penis crown... That's what is always caught inside you...and is a man's sensitive... Ah! Stop. If you don't... No... I can't... Wait, let go... If you don't stop... If you keep going, I'll...!

Regulus: I can't... I'm going to cum...inside your mouth. Take me out. I'm...cumming... I'm cumming...!

Regulus orgasms

Regulus: Hm...? Did you swallow it? It must have been bitter. Spit it out. Spit. I did not ejaculate? Hm? I felt like I did, but you are right. My desire to ejaculate has not subsided. ...Wait. You have done enough. No, it is not that I did not eject semen. I see... The ring around the base is tight so I simply had a dry orgasm. That's why I'm still erect... If you stroke me so much... Your fingers are slippery because of your saliva. How erotic... Stop. Don't smile so mischievously at me like that. It's not fair you are so cute. My penis is already aching from being so hard. Stop...what you're... You can't... Let go...! I'll cum...again...! It feels...too...good!

Regulus orgasms

Regulus: ...What did I say? Do you understand now? I'm unable to ejaculate and my lust won't subsid-... S-Stop, already. You don't need to try so hard. I'm already telling you it's enough...! When did you learn...how to use your tongue so erotic-...! You're actually sucking...! Hearing my moans makes you happy...? But...! It's unfair the way you tongue moves! If you keep this up, I'll...!

Regulus orgasms

Regulus: How... Oi, don't look so amused. Don't keep sucking. You really shouldn't continue. Stop. Won't you stop? Don't flick your tongue over my urethral opening. Just that alone makes me...!

Regulus orgasms

Regulus: I never knew you were so mean... I'm unable to eject semen even though I've climaxed so many times. This is a prolonged torture. Hm...? You had your name carved into the ring? And that ring has my penis captive? That alone makes me want to ejaculate. Yet...! Don't look up at me like that. When you torment with me with your tongue and your ring like this... I can't... It's amazing...!

Regulus orgasms

Regulus: Wait. ...Hey! I won't let you anymore! I did say I want you to kiss me, but I didn't think you would deep kiss my penis and control my cum...

Regulus: I've falling in love with you all over again, my Evil Queen.
Chuckles

Regulus: Well then, now it is my turn and must discipline the bad girl.

Regulus: Go on. Spread your legs and show me. Hmph... As I thought, you are so wet you are dripping. The ring decorated with the diamond suits you very well. How lovely and erotic your bud is. Were you excited while you toyed with me? You are trembling. Your clit and vagina are already aching and feels so good, doesn't it? I feel the same. I cannot resist the want to stroke your insides with my penis. So...

Regulus: Let me enter you just as we are...! To think we would cum together just as I enter you...!

Regulus: The more excited you are, the more the ring around the base of your clit tightens and it makes it even more sensitive, doesn't it? See? Every time I thrust your entire wall rolls. I am also driven by my desire to ejaculate and the pleasure never felt before surges many times over. I'm...cumming...!

Regulus orgasms

Regulus: See? When I orgasm continuously without ejaculating, there is no end to it. As for you, you climax over and over again thanks to your clit. While you were tormenting me, you were edged as well. Just thinking about that I'm...going to cum...again...!

Regulus orgasms

Regulus: It hard not being able to eject semen no matter how many times I orgasm, yet it feels too good. Kisses It feels thicker than usual? Oh, the continuous dry orgasms have made my rock hard and the blood flow has remained there. It doesn't know how to go limp. This is a sex that breaks people. It feels so good there's no going back. I'm cumming. The heat is swelling... Ahhh! I'm cumming...!

Regulus orgasms

Regulus: Even if I try to hold back, I get dragged along by your vaginal orgasm... There is no end to this continuous orgasm.

Regulus: I take it that this is what you were anticipating to happen? Do you want me to make endless love to you with my thick and firm penis? You didn't expect it to be so good...? The expression you are making is so cute it I just end up forgiving you. Choked by the fragrance of the roses, I feel my ability to think about to melt away. I want to drown in you just like this and have us continue to melt into each other...
Kisses Let me put it out there that I won't let you say I ejaculated prematurely. I didn't eject semen, so it doesn't count. You are also experiencing continuous orgasms. You can't take it anymore.? I won't let you off yet. Not by far. It is your fault in the first place. It is because you are so erotic and charming that this is not enough to express my love. Be prepared.

Regulus orgasms

Regulus: He warned not to indulge you too much but...stopping myself from loving you too much is the only thing I don't think I can stop. Kisses

7. Mini Stand-up Comedy Act – Time Capsule

- Regulus: The time capsule appeared in the story this time around as an important item. A letter to the future, is it? How dreamy of her. Why don't you and I try it out as well?
- Regulus: Hm? What are you writing? Hm? Huh? It doesn't matter if I get a peek. Just give me a quick look. Let's see...
- Regulus: "Carrots, potatoes, onions, roux"... This is a shopping list! For curry? Are we having curry tonight?! It's tomorrow's shopping list? There's a limit to how close the future can be! To top it off, you intend to use me, the King, as an errand boy?! I will buy it though! Except the carrots! Oh... You do not need it. It is an unnecessary item.
- Regulus: Anyhow! When you speak of a time capsule, it should contain something more full of dreams! Hm... What about me? Let's see... I have something to convey to my beloved you. That is right. It is a unchanging vow of love for eternity. A love so soft...if it's too soft it will become mushy. Do not put too many potatoes in, will yo- Wait. Curry?! Aren't I talking about curry?! If you do not put the potatoes in later, they will break down in the stew and the curry will become mushy, okay?!
- Regulus: ...I may sound more domestic now than before. However, that is not the point! Hm? What is that? "Soft and sweet like the strawberry I scream for. Like vanilla that melts in your mouth..." Ooh! That sounds good! "Like vanilla that melts in your mouth...vanilla...no, I still prefer matcha"...?
- Regulus: Wait. You're talking about ice cream?! It was a pun with "I scream" and "ice cream"?! And you were writing another shopping list?! I will buy all of that for you tomorrow as well!
- Regulus: That's not the point! I shall make a vow to our prospects! "Prospects"? "Pro"? "Specs". "Prospects" and "pro specs"...
- Regulus: Another pun?! Do not laugh at your own pun! Well thank goodness you are having fun! Geez! Do you not have anything else that is full of dreams?!
- Regulus: Hm? "8...3...9..., 2...5..." Lottery?! It is true it's full of dreams, but there is a high chance you will miss the jackpot!
- Regulus: Are you sure...? This is something that will reach you if, for example, I die. Don't cry just imagining it! You grow sad just thinking of losing me... You...poor darling! I won't allow it to happen! And for that same reason I will entrust a wish in the time capsule. So, although I do love you...

Regulus: Do not put carrots in the curry! White stew? Either is fine! The physicians have stopped me from eating carrots because of allergies. And I cannot eat them because of religious reasons and all those other reasons! No, don't put carrot seeds in the time capsule! Do not entrust the future with my things so I won't starve!

.. END ..
